LIBERTY DAY TO BE OBSERVED HERE TODAY

Local stores will close at 3 p.m. today. The post office windows will also close but mail will be received and go out as usual.

Liberty Day will be celebrated in Sierra Madre with a specially arranged program at the band stand and Liberty pole, beginning at five o'clock sharp, this afternoon.

Dr. Carl S. Patton will be the speaker, giving a twenty-minute address. Dr. Patton has been doing wonderfully effective work in behalf of the Liberty Loan from his pulpit in the First Congregational church in Los Angeles and in other places. It will be a rare privilege to have him here.

Newman Essick will preside, and that is a guarantee that the exercises will not drag.

The Sierra Madre band will play, and there will be patriotic singing by the school children as well as by the assembled crowd.

Soldiers of the Grand Army of the Republic will have a part in the exercises, as will the Boy Scout organization.

One important feature of the exercises will be the public presentation of the Third Liberty Loan Honor Flag. In addition to the three cross bars of blue on the white field, there is a blue star, indicating that Sierra Madre has doubled her quota in this campaign.

It is especially requested of all citizens that the American flag be displayed from every home today of all days. Show your colors! And then keep them flying.

Don't forget the hour is five o'clock instead of five-thirty as was announced at the mass meeting Monday night. You are apt to miss a surprise if you are not prompt. For the committee has one very important feature of the program which has not been announced to the public. Don't miss it.

NOTES OF LOCAL RED CROSS WORK

The usual Thursday luncheon will be resumed next week in the chapter rooms with Miss Vanner in charge.

In spite of the fact that most of the workers have been engaged at the Wistaria fete the past two weeks, considerable work was done at the chapter rooms. Two boxes containing 15,900 surgical dressings were shipped to the San Francisco headquarters.

A donation of $5 has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Carl Potter.

The chapter membership now stands at 965. When will it be one thousand?

Mrs. Byron U. Graham who has been visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. M. A. Binford and Miss Augusta Binford, for five months, left last Saturday for her home in Washington, D. C.

Kenneth Saunders and Harold Hart left Thursday morning with the Pasadena high school track team to take part in the state meet to be held in Sacramento on April 27th.

Mrs. Brugman and daughters, Miss Vega Brugman and Mrs. Henderson Childs, and little daughter, were among the visitors at the Wistaria vine last Sunday.

WONDERFUL WORK OF THE RED STAR

Col. Holabird Tells of Important Place Taken by Animal Relief Society

Humane treatment of birds and animals, and the wonderful work of the Red Star Society were presented in most impressive manner at the Congregational Church Sunday night by Col. W. H. Holabird, active head of the organization is Southern California.

Col. Holabird prefaced his remarks with a touching tribute to Roger Laurence, the first of the Sierra Madre men to fall in the defense of human liberty at the European battle front. He said in part:

"Roger Laurence was my friend. I knew him intimately and loved him as a son. When I was in charge of the affairs of the California Development Co., in the Imperial Valley, he was one of the engineers I employed there. He was unusually proficient in his profession. He endured the hardships of long hours of exacting work in that trying climate without a murmur. . . . He enlisted because he felt the call of duty, and without any pressure being necessary. He did it quietly and as a matter of course and now has made the great sacrifice in behalf of all of us."

Our Wild Friends

In the first part of his address Col. Holabird told a number of incidents illustrating the joys of close acquaintance and friendship with the birds. He said he hoped the time would come when every home would have a place for the birds to drink and boxes for them to nest, making Sierra Madre unique in that respect. He promised rigid enforcement of laws against the shooting of birds. He said he hoped a shooting range could be provided for the boys to exercise their talents on something else than birds, and also to develop marksmanship among the boys, many of whom will probably be needed in the army before the war is over.

War Work

By way of contrast with present conditions, Col. Holabird told a thrilling experience of the battle of Gettysburg, of seeing a battery going into action and later the same battery with every horse killed or wounded. The mute appeals of the wounded horses was one of the most heart rending experiences of the war, for in those days it was thought impossible to save the wounded horses, and they were either shot or left to die.

Nowadays, it has been found that horses can be saved despite serious wounds. And they cost so much by the time they reach the front that it is good business to save them. Through the Red Star society in America and its British prototype, enormous facilities have been provided for this work which is of such vital importance to the allied armies.

Stories of dogs as thrilling as human exploits were told. The dogs help relief work, guiding the workers infallibly to the wounded men on the field, and assisting in military operations by carrying messages, and going on outpost duty where their keenness of sight, hearing and smell are invaluable aids to the soldiers.

Although it was announced beforehand that no contributions would be asked in any form Mr. Wilson suggested that any who wished might give their names in as members of the society after the service. The re-

Save Wheat

Wheat saving is America's most vital food problem.

The United States Food Administration, in view of the critical wheat shortage, asks every Californian to observe the following amended rules:

Make every day and every meal a "wheatless" meal. Eat no food of any kind containing wheat or wheat products unless absolutely necessary for health.

Substitute fresh and cured meats of all kinds, potatoes, fresh vegetables, fruits, dairy products, and other cereals, such as corn and rice.

The "meatless" and "porkless" days have been suspended. There are now no restrictions on the consumption of any particular foods except wheat. The government urges, however, that no food of any kind be wasted.

Without sufficient wheat to feed our armies and those of the allies, we cannot hope for victory.

WIN STAR ON HONOR FLAG

Sierra Madre has a good start toward a second honor star on the Liberty Loan Honor Flag. The first star was won when the subscriptions reached $38,800 several days ago, which is double the local quota.

Last night Chairman Jones reported the total had reached $42,000 and several additional subscriptions were promised.

There seems little doubt that the $50,000 mark will be reached and there is a possibility of getting the total up to $58,200 and winning the second star on the flag. If some of the wealthy would subscribe like some who have small incomes, the total would go much higher.

THOUSANDS HAVE SEEN BIG WISTARIA VINE

And They All Pay Tribute to the Local Red Cross Work

Visitors are thronging daily to see the famous Wistaria vine the Scenic Point home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fennel. The total has doubtless reached up into the thousands.

Having taken a late start at blooming, there is now every indication that the vine will be worth viewing all of next week. The various Red Cross booths will probably not be continued all that time, though some arrangements will be made to provide simple refreshments for the late comers.

The lunch and tea department, the fruit and ice cream stand, the flower stand and the Red Cross Shop have continued to do a rushing business every day, especially Sunday. Next week a detailed report will be given of the amounts realized. The very substantial financial returns will be a boon to the local chapter because of heavy demands which must be met for supplies. By far the greater part of the proceeds comes from out of town visitors.

Response was enthusiastic and a large number remained to enroll at once.

Of the membership fee, Col. Holabird said, only a small fraction can be reserved for the expenses of the local branch, the rest going to the national organization.

This does not provide enough for the Los Angeles offices, with the necessary help and corps of lecturers, and the deficit is made up by Mrs. Baldwin who is the head of the society in the southwest.

THE GRIP OF FREEDOM

THRILLING STORY OF ITALY'S WAR TASK

Double-Barrelled Charge of patriotic Inspiration Given to Big Audience

One of the most thrilling addresses ever heard on any subject in Sierra Madre was that of Madame Luigi Angelini at the mass meeting Monday evening. Leslie B. Henry who followed with a Liberty Loan talk was without doubt the most dynamic speaker heard here in a long time, and drove home his points with the rapidity of a machine gun.

Col. Holabird who presided was introduced as a new "city dad" by C. W. Jones who put in claim for the title of "city grand dad" by reason of prior experience.

In his brief introductory remarks Mr. Holabird said the time has come when we can have no more doubts as to where the people of the community stand in the great conflict. There is no neutral ground. They are either for us or against us. Therefore every home should fly an American flag. If any are "too poor" to provide a flag, the absence thereof should be reported to the authorities so a committee can wait on them and present them with a flag and request that it be kept flying.

Heroic Italy

Mme. Angelini spoke with intense dramatic force, and carried her audience away with her effort to arouse sympathy for the suffering that has come upon Italy through her heroic part in the war. She laid the foundation for narration of present events by reviewing the development of idealism in the Italian character.

They are a people who readily sacrifice their lives in support of an ideal or principle. Within the last half century they have been developing a national consciousness among peoples who had no common ties before but had been the playthings of strong neighbors. But the spark of liberty was burning brightly, the sons of Garibaldi were among the first to go to the rescue of the French when Germany struck at Paris.

Italy refused to join in an unjust war on the side of Germany in spite of previous alliances and the threats of punishment. But when the time came, she went in on the side of liberty and justice, having refused a bribe of coveted provinces long held by Austria although really Italian.

The importance of Italy's defense of the "back door" of France was made very real. It was a harrowing story of campaigns among the stupendous difficulties of frozen mountain heights, with insufficient food or clothing, and with a large part of the nation as well living on one meal a day. But the soldier boys come home with their feet frozen off, and call cheerily from the car windows the popular cry of freedom for Italy and for Belgium.

Although she closed with an appeal for the Liberty Bond issue in aid of the common cause and made no direct appeal for aid, a collection was taken and something more than $60 was realized. (The News is informed that subscriptions for the relief of Italian suffering may be sent through W. E. McVey, care of Guaranty Trust & Savings bank in Los Angeles.)

Mr. Henry

It ought to give a slacker a chill to see Leslie Henry shake that impressive fore finger at him. And it would be a queer one who could not be galvanized into action by those short, stinging sentences with which he delivered his message. It was a stirring plea for economy till it hurts—saving of food, wool and everything else which is not essential to health and efficiency, and the investment of the savings where it will work for Uncle Sam. We are now on compulsory wheat rations because we did not voluntarily cut our consumption till there would be enough left to supply the needs of our allies who cannot supply themselves. We will be put on rations of a lot of other things before the war is over.

We talk about loaning money to the allies, but we merely loan them supplies and express it in money terms. The same way at home. The government has placed orders for vastly more goods for war purposes than the country ever produced for all purposes. These orders cannot be filled if people who believe in the theory of "business as usual" go into the market and buy unnecessary things in competition with Uncle Sam.

Mr. Jones closed with an appeal for a large increase in the amount already subscribed in Sierra Madre. He said there some conspicuous examples of people not buying bonds in proportion to their admitted ability and urged that the number of subscribers be increased and as many as possible increase their subscriptions already given.

NEW BOARD OF TRUSTEES ON THE JOB

The first money to be spent authorization of the new board of city trustees will be for a new American flag, to fly from the Liberty pole. The flag will be on hand for use this afternoon, pursuant to a motion of Trustee Holabird and adopted unanimously. Smaller flags of the allied nations will also be purchased for use on special occasions when a display is to be made.

The trustees held their first regular meeting last night. It was an encouraging sign that they convened promptly, and also that they adjourned before nine o'clock.

All members were present, with President Mitchell in the chair.

Forest Protection

Thomas W. Sloan, District ranger from Pasadena, appeared before the board to request a renewal of the arrangement by which the city has been cooperating with the forest service in hiring a forest guard to patrol the mountains and trails along the front at Sierra Madre, the city to pay $50 monthly as before.

On motion of Trustee Holabird, the board voted to enter into such an arrangement for the period from June 1 to Nov. 1, or until the first rains.

Relief from Noise

A petition from residents in the neighborhood of Sturtevant Trail Road asked for relief from the nuisance of open auto mufflers at all hours of the day and night, excessive speed which they asked be limited to twelve miles an hour, and the boisterous yelling which is common on Friday and Saturday nights especially.

That part of the petition relating to enforcement of existing ordinances was referred to the police committee, and that part asking for new legislation was referred to the ordinance committee.

Pump Payments

When the claim for the current installment on the new motors and pumps was presented, Chairman Saunders of the finance committee said he did not care to approve the claim until Chairman Holabird of the water committee had an opportunity to pass on the question of whether or not the pumps were needed. In answer to a question, supt. Biederman said the pumps were expected about the middle of May. Two payments have been made under the contract. The matter was referred to the water committee.

Appointments

City Attorney Ham placed his resignation in the hands of the board with an application for reappointment, which was made.

Application of Water Superintendent Biederman for reappointment was granted by common consent by the simple expedient of leaving him on the job. Trustee Saunders expressed the opinion that the board would need Mr. Biederman's extensive knowledge of the water system and sources of supply.

Two applications were filed for the position of marshal and street superintendent, those of Wm. McCreary and Wm. A. Wright. For the position of night watchman there were applications from E. W. Patton and Wm. L. Hibbs. All were referred to the committee on streets and police for consideration.

OFFICIAL FOOD NEWS

Issued by
U. S. Food Administration
for California
RALPH P. MERRITT, Commissioner

At no time during the war has the importance of wheat saving been greater than at this moment.

So serious is the situation, so vital the need for saving wheat and wheat products, that the government is asking every man and woman in America to stop eating, voluntarily, all foods containing wheat flour and wheat products in any form and in no case to eat more than one and one-half pounds a week. This does not apply to invalids or children, but it has been carefully investigated and found that children can substitute potatoes for bread as well as the grown up and thrive by the change.

All restrictions on the use of other foods have been removed. You may eat as much meat, including bacon and cured pork products, as you need. Out of our vast storehouse of supplies we are asked to select anything we wish—except wheat. When thousands are dying on the battle fields of Europe to protect YOUR home and YOUR family it is very little to ask in return that wheat be eliminated from your menu. Do away with wheat—abolish it from your table and you will be aiding in the defense of your home and country. Every time you eat a piece of white bread you are taking it away from one who needs it worse, from either a starving woman or child or a hungry soldier. Let that thought be in your mind at every meal and see if from now until the next harvest, five months hence, you cannot say that you have touched no wheat or wheat products. Thousands of people in America are now doing this without any injury to their health or comfort. It is merely inconvenient.

Mrs. J. W. Keys of Pasadena spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Brooks. Miss Lillian Moore of Pasadena was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Mackerras Sunday. Mrs. Paul Williams of Lafolla is spending a short time with her son, Crawford Williams, who has taken a house at 69 Suffolk Ave.

The last meeting of the Travellers will be held Monday afternoon, April 29, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. W. Camp, 497 W. Grand View.

Mrs. C. Schnell and daughter Gertrude of Chicago arrived last Friday to spend a month with Mrs. Schnell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Cavanaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stuessy of Saint Louis, Missouri, arrived last week to be the guests of Mr. Stuessy's brother and sister, Fred Stuessy and Miss Anne Stuessy.

The Misses Elizabeth DeSilva, Marjorie Test of Pasadena, Mattie and Helen Seeley, Messrs. Ralph Bernays of Los Angeles, Ted DeSilva of Pasadena and Bryant Essick were the guests of Will Seeley at the Cabaret-dance last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klemme and daughter, Miss Ruth Klemme, expect to return next Monday to their home in Belmond, Iowa, having spent the past two winters here. Mr. Klemme has purchased the Akroyd property at 354 N. Canyon which they have been occupying, and expect to return to Sierra to make their home.

BAILEY'S LANE

"Keep the Home Fires Burning"

Tonight there will be American boys in lonely listening posts far out in the desolation of No Man's Land, American boys in the darkness and the mud and cold of the trenches under the ceaseless thunder of guns and the scream of shells, American boys tramping along the pitch-black, shell-torn roads.

Through the long, dreary hours, as they wait and watch in the dark, while dangers lurk on every hand, their thoughts turn to the homes they have left behind, homes on distant farms, in scattered villages, in great cities, and they see in imagination the pleasant home lights shining out into the night.

They Are Fighting to Keep Those Home Fires Burning

You, back here in the peace and safety of the homes they love, can help in the bitter struggle that our boys must face tonight, and tomorrow night, and every day, and every night, until the final VICTORY is won. You, too, must work to keep the home fires burning—for our sons in France.

They need guns and more guns, shells and more shells, they need tanks and transports and airplanes, good food and warm clothes and medicines and hospital supplies—an ever increasing abundance of all the vital materials of war, if they are to drive the ruthless German invaders back within their own borders, and establish for all time the sacredness of American liberty and the safety of America's homes—their homes, our homes.

For these lads that are fighting and dying for you—do your share to send them to VICTORY. Invest today in Bonds of the Third Liberty Loan—ALL the bonds you can. Keep the home fires burning.

"LET CALIFORNIA'S SUBSCRIPTION BE MONUMENT TO PRINCIPLE"

By Governor William D. Stephens.

The Government is again calling upon us to lend it a part of our savings. It is giving those of us who cannot go into battle an opportunity to render service of the highest value. It must be remembered that all of us can render this service without actual sacrifice to ourselves in that we are only asked to lend when we might well be asked to give. Let us bear in mind the thought that the more freely we use our money to strengthen the arm of the nation the more speedily will the war be brought to an end and our sons who are offering their lives be brought home to us again with a victory that may mean permanent peace. While the people of California have exhibited splendid patriotism in their subscriptions to the First and Second Liberty Loans, I trust that they will answer the present call of the Government with even greater generosity and pile up a total subscription that will ever stand as a monument to their loyalty and their belief in the principles of democracy.

HARRY LAUDER'S ADVICE

Harry Lauder is being serious these days. The famous Scotch comedian is subordinating his comedy to the all-embracing demands of war. Along with his work for his Injured Soldiers' fund and the Y. M. C. A., Lauder is making an earnest appeal to Americans to prepare for the next Liberty Loan. General subscription is the theme of Lauder's message. Here is what he says:

Liberty is the dearest word in any language. It is the thing the Germans are fighting to take away. It is the one big thing we must fight to keep.

What have you done to help win the war? What are you doing to preserve liberty?

Every Sunday 500,000 Germans in the United States sing songs of pulling the trigger; they are talking of you—of the United States. What are you doing to do about them?

Right now our answer must be—BUY LIBERTY BONDS! We have given that answer once, twice already. But we must make it again and again as need is. We must turn our dollars into silver bullets. That is the way we can become shareholders in the Bank of Humanity. Our part is to provide the wherewithal, since we can't do what the boys out there are doing.

Back in France I saw battalions of young fighters marching along and chanting a song—an old song—right into the mouth of death. They knew where they were going. They were fighting to save LIBERTY. And they are calling on you to help them, you back here.

Our part is easy compared with theirs—but it is OUR PART and it must be done. Put your money into liberty supports. Sign up as shareholders in humanity's bank.

CLUB NOMINATIONS TO BE ANNOUNCED

Nomination of officers for the coming year was the order of business at the Woman's Club session on Monday. A nomination committee was appointed to see which of the nominees will run, the committee consisting of Mmes. Frank J. Hart, L. E. Steinberger and W. H. Ingraham. They will report on the list of candidates, which will be published.

A musical program in charge of Mrs. Legembre consisted of several pleasing mandolin numbers by Miss Costa, accompanied by Miss Milliard, both of Los Angeles. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mmes. Conard and Kelley.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. George B. Morgridge on Tuesday, April 30. It will be a social meeting, Mrs. Howard Hill assisting with the entertainment.

Mrs. Tom Foster of Phoenix, Ariz., visited friends in Sierra Madre on Monday. Mrs. Foster was, before her marriage on April 13th, Miss Janie Chapman and was formerly an operator in the local telephone exchange.

Mrs. Stella Dennison entertained a number of friends last Saturday night with a "movie" party in honor of the birthday anniversary of Miss Ethel Powell. After the pictures the guests assembled at the home of Miss Powell where music and games were enjoyed.

DINNER DANCE AND CABARET POPULAR

"Cabaret" in every sense of the word, featured the attractive dinner-dance given at the club house last Friday evening. The tables were beautifully decorated with iris, daffodils and maidenhair fern, and yellow and purple were effectively used in the dining room and on the stage.

The entertainment was under the management of Messrs. Ernest Miller of Los Angeles and L. N. Legembre. Great talent was displayed. The hits of the evening were little Miss Dorothy Warren who sang and danced her way into the hearts of all, Misses Sperry and Walker in pleasing songs and costumes, Misses Kraft, Ifenhour and Camp, and Mr. Miller in his female impersonation. Generous applause was also accorded Miss Nina Kellogg, Miss Helen Williams, Messrs. Peterson and Chose.

The preparing and serving of the dinner was in the hands of Mrs. W. E. Walker, assisted by Mmes. Rhodes, Bassett, Dickson, Andrews, Legembre, Lees, Hill, Dietz, and Caley.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Fletcher orchestra and continued until midnight.

Mrs. R. B. Brehm, Miss Edith Brehm, Mr. Edward Brehm of San Jose, and Miss Helen Allen of Livermore motored down on Wednesday to spend a short time at the home of Mrs. Brehm's son, George J. Beck.

It Pays to Paint

Avoid the hard work and backaches caused by scrubbing floors. Bare wood floors absorb grease and dirt. No amount of scrubbing will keep them absolutely clean. Paint protects floors, does not absorb dirt; no trouble to clean and is absolutely sanitary and pleasing in appearance.
